March 6—The Need for Secularism in the Modern World

David Whalen

David Whalen is an instructor at the OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Delaware in Lewes. He teaches a course that includes such topics as:

- The God Dilemma: The need for understanding the obstacles that religion presents in the modern world.
- The Dichotomy Between Man and Nature: Man being the only animal who has existential angst.
- The Need for Enlightenment in Today's World: Knowledge has never been more prolific or more profoundly necessary.

March 13— Telling Our Stories (Intergenerational)

John Wright

For this very special service, "a child will lead them". Or, more accurately, the children will lead us! Our Religious Education folks and the children (who have become authors, we're told) have been working hard putting together a service for us to enjoy! Come share in the joy of childhood, and the wonderful surprises our RE children have in store for us.

March 20--8th Annual Making Peace; Not War Observance (Neighbors in Peace, Knowing Islam)

Dawood Ahmad

At the 8th annual observance of the start of the Iraq war, Dawood Ahmad, President, The Islamic Society of Delmarva, will keynote this event, cosponsored by the Fellowship and the Peace Alliance of the Lower Shore (PALS). This event will be followed by a Potluck for Peace and will continue at the 2:00 ? 3:00 P.M. PALS Silent Peace Vigil, on the corner of Route 13 and College Ave.

Mr. Ahmad will promote understanding of the Islamic faith and what we can do to dispel negative misconceptions about it to stop the growing fear, hatred and threat of violence to our Muslim neighbors.

The community is invited to join us for this informative event.
