Unitarian Universalist Fellowship at Salisbury

Sunday Programs – April 2010

April 4 – “Defeating Despair: Giving Life the first and final word” Wes Davis

Wes Davis is an educator, musician, writer and speaker with a broad range of interests and life experiences. He earned his Master of Divinity degree from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. and served as a United Methodist pastor for thirteen years. Currently he is a full-time musician performing mostly in the Ocean City, Maryland area and an adjunct faculty member at Salisbury University in the Communication Arts Department.

April 11 - Invite a Friend Sunday-John Wright

Have you been thinking about inviting someone to UUFS? If you have, this is the Sunday to do it! This service will be designed as an introduction to Unitarian Universalism and John Wright’s sermon will be “What Do You Say After “I’m UU?” —so invite a friend to join you at UUFS today!

John received his Master of Divinity degree from the Starr King School for the Ministry, the Unitarian Universalist Seminary in Berkeley, California. His particular field of specialization is pastoral care surrounding death and loss. John now serves as Consulting Minister to the UUFS.

April 18 - The Power of the Story in Spiritual Growth-Beth Ohlsson

Beth has been a professional storyteller in the traditional style for an adult audience for nearly thirty years. While holding down a “day job” as an addictions counselor with the Center for Clean Start in Salisbury, she is also a Master’s Candidate in the professional storytelling program at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, TN, and has a Bachelor of Science in Dramatic Arts and Education from McDaniel College in Westminster, Maryland. She is a member of the National Storytelling Network and the Healing Story Alliance. She is uniquely qualified to speak to and to demonstrate the power of the ancient medium she loves in spiritual growth.

April 25 – Earth Based Spirituality-Liz LaPosta
