Sunday Services – October 2009

October 4 - Wes Davis

Wes Davis is a rock musician, songwriter, businessman, freelance speaker, college instructor and writer. He is a popular local entertainer and his varied background includes extensive studies in spiritual traditions. His personal evolution has brought him to an approach that embraces both the mystical and the rational. Wes has been a teacher and counselor to people from all walks of life, including many in our own community. He speaks of universal human wisdom with humor and insight and seeks to make every moment a celebration of life.

October 11 - National Coming Out Day John Wright

For members of the GLBT community “coming out” is often an emotional and sometimes risky act. In this special service, our minister John Wright will reflect on both the courage required to “come out” as a gay, lesbian bisexual or transgendered person, and for each of us to live a genuine, authentic, true-to-ourselves lives. We will also have some very special surprise musical guests!

John received his Master of Divinity degree from the Starr King School for the Ministry, the Unitarian Universalist Seminary in Berkeley, California. His particular field of specialization is pastoral care surrounding death and loss. John now serves as Consulting Minister to the UUFS.

October 18 - The Healing Power of Humor David Foster

A demonstration of the ways humor is an essential ingredient of spiritual growth and well-being. Yes, you will laugh out loud.

October 25 – The United Nations, the United States and the War in Afghanistan: Prospects for Peace, Prospects for War (UN Sunday) Dr. Michael O'Loughlin

We welcome Mike's return as our SAC UN Sunday speaker! He is Professor of Politics at Salisbury University, teaching courses in Political Theory and American Politics and Public Policy. He is particularly interested in US foreign policy in the Middle East. (Of course, he also delights us as one of "THE FOLK HEROES!"). He received his B.A. in Political Science at the University of Pittsburgh, and his Ph.D. at The Ohio State University.
