

Sunday UU Programs – September 2010

September 5 - Water Communion Ceremony

Led by Karen Goyer

As we begin our new program year, our worship will include the UU “Water Communion”. We invite you to bring a small amount of water that is a reflection of a meaningful place or event of significance to you this year. The source of the water might be almost anything-- let your imagination have wings. We will blend our offerings of water as symbolic of our joining ourselves in community to begin a new year.

September 12 – Grandparents/Ancestor’s Day

John Wright

John received his Master of Divinity degree from the Starr King School for the Ministry, the Unitarian Universalist Seminary in Berkeley, California. His particular field of specialization is pastoral care surrounding death and loss. John now serves as Consulting Minister to the UUFS.

September 19 - Wes Davis

Wes Davis is a rock musician, songwriter, businessman, freelance speaker and writer. He is a popular local entertainer and his varied background includes extensive studies in spiritual traditions. His personal evolution has brought him to an approach that embraces both the mystical and the rational. Wes has been a teacher and counselor to people from all walks of life, including many in our own community. He speaks of universal human wisdom with humor and insight and seeks to make every moment a celebration of life.

September 26 – Day of Peace

Andy Pica (Music provided by Diana Wagner)

Andy will reflect on this year’s International Day of Peace in Salisbury (which takes place on September 25). What does it mean to strive for a peaceful world through efforts in our own community?
